Ms. Drouillard:

In follow-up to the meeting on May 17, 2012 with Mr. Rubio, I have reviewed the documents and information that have been provided to date and determined there are additional documents and information that are required.

Enclosed please find Form 9297 dated June 7, 2012. It contains a specific list of items and information that must be provided. As you recall at the meeting, you requested three weeks to gather any additional information and documents, though you advised that you have been working on some items that remain from the initial request issued to the taxpayer on Form 9297 dated March 14, 2012.

Also enclosed is a list of questions that Mr. Rubio is required to complete and return with all of the other information and documents. It is referenced on Form 9297 as item 24. Please ensure that he provides complete responses.

As we discussed on May 17, 2012, I am still working with IRS Chief Counsel’s Office on the Service’s position regarding pursuit of the Civil Tax Assessments outside of the Court Ordered Restitution. In the interim, I will continue to conduct the Collection investigation. Once I have obtained guidance from IRS Counsel, I will advise you and will proceed as stated during the meeting.

It is vital that I receive all of the information and documents by July 9, 2012. Failure to comply will result in actions necessary to obtain any outstanding items. Please contact me prior to July 9, 2012 to discuss any consideration for extension.

If you have any questions or need more information, please contact me at the address or the telephone number listed below:

Form 9297 (Rev. 5-2009)
Mr. Rubio,

During our meeting on May 17, 2011 and in the presence of your Powers of Attorney, Therea Drouillard and Mark Morris and Probation Officer Craig Bilinski, I conducted an interview with you. There were a number of questions that I asked that you could not answer at the time or were advised by Ms. Drouillard at the time not to answer. There were also questions which I was unable to ask because Mr. Bilinski had another appointment.

You are requested to provide written responses to the following questions that pertain to the Collection investigation for the civil tax assessments outstanding for Income Tax years 1998 through 2003. If there is insufficient room provided after each question to provide a complete answer, please attach additional sheets as needed and provide a reference to the number of the question:

1. During the meeting on May 17, 2012, you stated that you pay $400 per week as an allowance to your daughter Ilsa who is attending college, though she still lives at your residence. What college does she attend? Is she a part-time student or full-time student? Do you pay her tuition? How much is it and from what bank account(s) is it paid?

2. During the meeting on May 17, 2012, you stated that you pay $700 per week as an allowance to your son Geronimo Jr. who is attending college full time. What college does he attend? Do you pay his tuition? How much is it and from what bank account(s) is it paid?
3. Provide the bank names, addresses, account numbers, authorized signers and types of accounts for any and all financial accounts, that are open or closed, held anywhere in the world under the partnership, Rubio Cancer Center.

4. Do you have any merchant accounts or have you had any merchant accounts to process credit card receipts for Rubio Cancer Center at any U.S. financial institution? Which institutions and what are the merchant account numbers?

5. Do you have any merchant accounts or have you had any merchant accounts to process credit card receipts for Rubio Cancer Center at any Mexican financial institution? Which institutions and what are the merchant account numbers?

6. Provide the bank names, addresses, account numbers and types of accounts, open or closed between January 1, 2008 through the present, for any and all financial accounts held by you or your spouse, jointly or separately, and any accounts of your family members in which you are an authorized signer or have right of withdrawal held at any U.S. financial institution.
7. Provide the bank names, addresses, account numbers and types of accounts, open or closed between January 1, 2008 through the present, for any and all financial accounts held by you or your spouse, jointly or separately, and any accounts of your family members in which you are an authorized signer or have right of withdrawal held at any financial institution in Mexico or anywhere else in the world.

8. On Form 433A CIS you submitted through Mr. Bilinski to the IRS in late March 2012, you list your occupation as Doctor. On your 2009 Form 1040 Form 2106 Unreimbursed Employee Business Expense you list your occupation as collection. On the same form submitted with your 2010 & 2011 Form 1040, you list your occupation as billing manager. Can you explain these different occupations, where you perform this work and what company you perform these duties under?

9. Between tax years 2008 and 2011, you sometimes included Schedule C with your Form 1040 to report business income in addition to funds you received either through guaranteed payments or other earnings from Rubio Cancer Center. Can you explain why you did not report Sch. C Business Income for all years?
10. The partnership tax returns, Form 1065, for Rubio Cancer Center and Form 433B CIS you submitted in late March 2012, reflect that the type of business is medical billing. Please provide a detailed explanation of what type of medical billing is done, for whom (persons and/or companies), who is billed, where this work is done, by whom and how often is it done?

11. Rubio Cancer Center has filed a U.S. Partnership Return Form 1065 for tax years 2008 through 2010. These returns report large expenses categorized as Collection Reimbursements. Can you explain in detail what these expenses are?

12. In 2011, there is no longer an expense category for Collection Reimbursements. There is a new expense category called Reimbursements from Collection Clinic. Can you explain in detail what these expenses are and how they differ from Collection Reimbursements?

13. Can you explain expenses shown on the partnership’s Income Statements and Tax Returns (Form 1065) for:

   13A. Advertising & Promotion:
   - 2009 $ 49,800
   - 2010 $266,653
   - 2011 $125,581
13B. Commission (who receives them, what for and are 1099's issued?)

<tr>
<td>2010</td>
<td>$83,725</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2011</td>
<td>$117,547</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

13C. Salaries & Wages and why is nothing reported in this category in 2008 or 2011?

   2010 $2,035,580

13I. Reimbursements from Collection Clinic:
   2011 $1,043,038

14. Does Rubio Cancer Center keep a general ledger for each business bank account or combined together for all financial transactions pertaining to the Rubio Cancer Clinic operations?

15. Who is responsible for entries in the general ledger?

16. Are the general ledgers kept current?

17. Are the general ledgers maintained in a computer based program? If so, what format or program is used?
18. Where are the general ledgers kept for Rubio Cancer Center?

19. Who has access to the general ledgers and other financial records for Rubio Cancer Center?

20. Do you use the Wells Fargo bank accounts ending in 1412, 4012, 3864, 1214, 0483, 1416 and 8524 to pay personal expenses or for activities that are not business related?

21. Explain why the business accounts are used for personal expenditures and the type of expenses paid through these accounts:

22. A review of the bank statements provided Wells Fargo acct 1412 for the period of June 2011 through December 2011, show there were cash withdrawals from the account totaling approx. $337,730, at the rate of anywhere from about $26,500 per month to nearly $71,000 per month. Can you explain why the high dollar rate for cash withdrawals and what the funds are used for?

23. The same bank statements also show online transfers labeled as salary to: Rubio M, Guzman D, Rubio V, Rubio G and Rubio I. What are the names of the individuals that these abbreviations are referring to?
24. The same Wells Fargo Bank statements for June thru Dec. 2011 show thousands of dollars in check card purchases or other transactions at Barona Casino. These same type of transactions were found consistently since the account was opened. How are these transactions for gambling activities treated in the general ledger and financial records for Rubio Cancer Center?

25. Do you treat these transactions as personal income to you from the business?

26. If, not treated as personal income, how do you treat these transactions for tax purposes on your Form 1040?

27. The same Wells Fargo Bank statements also show a considerable number of transactions totaling in the tens of thousands each month for hotels, restaurants, Total Fitness, Alliance Training, Amazon Marketplace, Racing Digest, Airline Tickets, Cox Communications, Home Depot, Bed Bath & Beyond, Toy R Us, Jeromes Furniture, LA Fitness, Target, Walmart, Vons, etc. Can you explain why these transactions have occurred on this business account?

28. Do you consider these recurring transactions to be business related expenses? If so, explain the business purposes.

29. How are these transactions treated in the general ledgers for the business?
30. If you consider any of these transactions to be personal in nature, do you treat them as income or as something else? _______________

31. The same statements also show transfers of large amount of money from this account to accounts that have been identified as personal accounts belonging to you, Wells Fargo Bank account 9552 and other accounts. For the period of June thru Dec. 2011, for example, more than $143,000 has been transferred from the business acct #1214 to your personal acct 9552. Can you explain the reason for these transfers? ____________________

32. How are these transactions treated in the general ledgers for the business? __________________________

33. If you consider any of these transactions to be personal in nature, do you treat them as income or as something else? ________________

34. The bank statements for the same business account 1412, during the same period, show wire transfer of funds on a regular basis that total in excess of $316,000 to an HSBC account in Mexico that appears to belong to Geronimo Rubio Crisostomo. What are these funds for? __________________________

35. Are these funds paid as compensation? _____________________________________

36. Do you have an account at Success Bank? ________________________________
